Bremner Heads 1929 Technique

David F. Bremner, Jr, '29, was announced as the new General Manager of Technique, heading the Managing board of the年年底 banquet for the coming year, at the Technique House on Wednesday afternoon. As members with him on the board, he will have Richard M. Conner '29, as business manager, and Ralph Evans '29, as managing editor.

Bremner is a native of Chicago and prepared for Technology at Loyola Junior College. He has been writing on the year book since his freshman year, and last year filled the position of Publicity Manager. In his Sophomore year, he extended his activities to athletics, competing in the Field Day as a member of the cheer leading. Among the Roaring Twenties, Dave's has held, are those of Field Day and member of the All - Technology Trackers Committee. He has recently been elected to Pi Delta Epsilon, the honorary journalism fraternity.

Elections of the staff members to Junior Board position were made effective at the same time, the new managers being as follows: Advertising Manager, Mervin Maren '29; Publicity Manager, Howard S. D. Bobrow '29; Photographic Manager, George T. Temple '29; Art Editor, Bryce T. Leach '29; Literary Editor Parker H. Dreier '29; Features Editor, Herman Patterson, Jr, '29; Departments Editor, George W. Wynn '29, and Treasurer, Hidalgo C. Danton '29.

At this time, the men who have been working on the publication all year were elected to the staff. These included: Assistant Manager, Edward A. Yates '29; assistant editor, E. W. Norwood '29; assistant secretary, A. W. Briggs '29; assistant treasurer, Howard R. Batchelder '28, resigning as Assistant Treasurer of the M. I. T. A. A. at the time in charge of the executive meeting of the association.
