Airplane Designer to Speak at Dinner

Technology's Annual Society will hold a dinner meeting to honor the designer of several famous airplanes. At the dinner meeting, the designer will speak of his methods of propelling the airplane and construction and design of the latest models. The dinner will be served at 7:30 at the Harvard Club. A program of the meeting will be available to all members of the Society.

Gordon F. Rogers is Now Head Of Combined Societies

Plans For Next Year Are Discussd At Recent Meeting

Gordon F. Rogers was elected chairman of the Combined Societies for the year ending June 30. He succeeds E. H. B. Gates, who will become the president of the Corporation for the following year. A regular meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. on June 20 at the Hotel Belvedere, and the following officers will be elected: president, Frederick W. Teaching aid; vice-president, Frederick W. Teaching aid; secretary, Frederick W. Teaching aid; and treasurer, Frederick W. Teaching aid.

Student Inquiry Recommendations Given To Faculty

Summary Will Be Published in THE TECH on Friday—essen Pages in Report

Two hundred miscellaneous objects of interest obtained from the Student Inquiry, notes received from the men of the Class of '31, and the minutes of the Faculty meeting will be discussed and commented upon in the meeting which will be held at the College Library. The procedure of the combined committee will be attended by the meeting and will be directed by the chairman. A summary of the report will be published in THE TECH on Friday, May 31, containing the specific conclusions and recommendations of the committee. The report will be published in full in the next issue of THE TECH.

President Samuel W. Stratton was elected chairman of the committee on the May 1 meeting and the president-elect of the committee on the May 2 meeting. The committee consists of: Robert N. B. Gates, chairman; Robert N. B. Gates, vice-chairman; and Albert E. Gates, secretary.

The summary of the report is Friday's issue of THE TECH. The results obtained in the inquiry of the committee are contained in the summary of the report. The summary of the report will be published in THE TECH on Friday, May 31, containing the specific conclusions and recommendations of the committee. The report will be published in full in the next issue of THE TECH.

President Samuel W. Stratton was elected chairman of the committee on the May 1 meeting and the president-elect of the committee on the May 2 meeting. The committee consists of: Robert N. B. Gates, chairman; Robert N. B. Gates, vice-chairman; and Albert E. Gates, secretary.

The summary of the report is Friday's issue of THE TECH. The results obtained in the inquiry of the committee are contained in the summary of the report. The summary of the report will be published in THE TECH on Friday, May 31, containing the specific conclusions and recommendations of the committee. The report will be published in full in the next issue of THE TECH.

Technology's Graduation Exercises Will Be Held at 4:00 P.M. on Saturday, June 11

The ceremonies will include a skit writing competition, a special address by President Stratton, and the presentation of degrees to the graduating class. The program will be announced in THE TECH on Friday, May 31, containing the specific conclusions and recommendations of the committee. The report will be published in full in the next issue of THE TECH.

NEW OFFICERS TAKE CONTROL TOMORROW

Buffet Dinner Will Be Served at President's House

A main meeting of the outgoing Institute Committee will be held to discuss the new committee and its duties. The new committee will hold its first meeting at 7:30 p.m. on June 20, at the Hotel Belvedere, and the following officers will be elected: president, Frederick W. Teaching aid; vice-president, Frederick W. Teaching aid; secretary, Frederick W. Teaching aid; and treasurer, Frederick W. Teaching aid.

Technology's Graduation Exercises Will Be Held at 4:00 P.M. on Saturday, June 11

The ceremonies will include a skit writing competition, a special address by President Stratton, and the presentation of degrees to the graduating class. The program will be announced in THE TECH on Friday, May 31, containing the specific conclusions and recommendations of the committee. The report will be published in full in the next issue of THE TECH.