Sit front before taking degrees and changed to left side front after receiving diplomas.

Professor Tucker has also stressed the importance of such Register’s requiring his cap and gown before May 23, as this is the last day that orders will be taken. Seniors are required to wear the Cap and Gown at the Graduation Exercises, the Commencement Service, and the Class Day exercises.
The Faculty Committee has also pointed out that all men receiving their degrees at Commencement must be on the Second Floor of Symphony Hall at 16:45 on the morning of June 5, and that each man must keep his position in the procession, so as to receive his own diploma. Incidentally, the Corporation is registering the Diploma, and no man is expected to buy for them. Moreover, no Student can be admitted to the Exercises in Commencement in the Cap and Gown until he has paid all of his bills to the Bursar by June 2. Statement of the official standing of members of the class will be obtainable at the Bursar’s office from June 1.

All men wishing to have their names of graduation mailed to them special delivery on Friday, June 1, after the Faculty meeting may apply to Mrs. Wicks, Room 315, and giving her the cost of postage.

Mr. Walker Memorial, where a picnic is to be taken of the entire unit. Unfortunately the boys were in a generous mood, for they began to toss pennies at the camera when drill is going on, and the resulting scramble made it rather difficult for the photographer to focus the camera, since the pennies had an uncertainty method of landing near the camera, and causing a scrimmage which disturbed the men.

In addition to being generous, the boys also assisted the activities of the Harvard crew which happened to be passing, for a loud cheer of “Row, row, row, could be heard over the entire campus, and also on the river. Slightly disturbed, the crew stopped to pass its armament at the army assembled on the chairs.

When all the bright young men and women have passed their final examinations, the fun really begins. Commencement! Solemn robes! Solemn speeches! Solemn parents!

But gaiety afterwards, you bet! Gather all your friends and relatives together. Get out the food! And get out the bottles of “Canada Dry”!

This fine old ginger ale has a joyous flavor, a rare dry flavor which makes it the choice of college connoisseurs all over the U. S. A. Its subtle ginger taste recommends it to particular palates. Its pleasing carbonation makes it go down with a gurgle of good feeling. Because “Canada Dry” is made from pure Jamaica ginger and does not contain caspium (red pepper). It does not bite the tongue or leave an unpleasant after-effect. Pure, mild, mellow . . . drink “Canada Dry” and see how good a ginger ale can be! It blends well with other beverages.

“P.A. wins on every count

ANY way you figure it, P.A. is better tobacco.

Take fragrance, for instance. Your well-known olfactory organ will tell you. And taste—who can describe that? And mildness—you couldn’t ask for anything milder.

Yes, Sir, P. A. is cool and comfortable and mellow and mild. Long-burning, with a good clean ash. You never tire of P. A. It’s always the same old friendly smoke. Get yourself a tidy red tin and check everything I’m telling you.
