The Bicentennial Service this year was held in Trinity Church on Sunday at 3 o'clock, and the parade which marched through the center street to encircle the front portion of the church comprised nearly 200 students dressed in their gill cap and gown regalia. The sermon was preached by the Reverend Henry K. Sheftick, rector of Trinity Church.

As one of the major events of the week, the Senior Class Day exercises were held yesterday in Walker Memorial at 11 a.m. The Senior Class, enroled gift, which was presented by Ralph T. Jepsen, President Stratton, greatly exceeded last year's fund total, and will amount to $75.00 at the close of the term. There are no limits. The Class History, consisting of a brief resume of '28's activities during their four years at Technology, was presented by James Donovan. This amount will be the first one since the construction of the new institute building twelve years ago that the exercises have been held in the open of the courts of the institute ground. The change has been made necessary by the alterations now being made in the court court at par to plan to beautify the grounds.
