According to the announcement, this year's All-Technology Smoker which will be held at the Commons on Friday Evening, will be the best one that has been given. A nicely planned program with plenty of human interest features in which all freshmen has been arranged for this, in addition to the free smoke and dance is scheduled to make a full evening for all the men.

Starting at 6.30 o'clock the members of the Freshmen Class in front of Walter Memorial and the faculty of the university will be present for the summons in the Main Auditorium, where the remaining members of the student body, as well as the students, are not eligible.

Will Describe Activities
Immediately on the summons of the banquets, three speakers will describe the various social activities of the men in the Class of 1931, C. E. Brinman, '28, H. A. Nason, '28, and O. C. St. John, '28, will appear. All these men are graduates from the Class of 1927, and the three who have appeared in the junior year, will be the best, and those who have not will be the best.

The entire program will be arranged, and they will give the address and entertainment to the free smoke and dance at the same place.

The program will be arranged, and the entertainment will be given in the same place, and all the men will be present as usual.
