FOCUS YOUR LENS

Our readers will be delighted this week with the latest and best photographs of campus activities. In addition, we help every student understand and pay for this service. We have pictures — the kind that can come only from students.

We pay for every photograph used. Blow the dust off your camera and send your photographs to the Editor.

A BOISTEROUS AMBASSADOR

Many Technology fans expected a Speech at Atrium Monday. Many in the happy throng had assumed that the speaker would be Mr. Horace H. Horner, famed for his knowledge of the 'Cranes' football team. From left to right: Dreshar, guard; Boots, guard; Helms, guard; Mizeliner, center; Schmidt, tackle; Schnupp, tackle; Hjighberger, tackle; Netland, guard; Yeriva, guard or center; Lovewell, guard. Their average weight is more than 200 pounds and all but three are six footers.

When asked if he had been in the service Mr. Horner said, "I was in the service but there are still about two thousand checks that their owners have not claimed as yet. The checks vary greatly in size. The smallest check is for one thousand dollars, the largest is for one hundred and eighty dollars."
