Delta Kappa Epsilon Holds National Convention in Boston, December 27-29

Local Chapter to be Host at the 84th Annual Convention of Fraternity

Plans are being made for the 84th annual convention of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity which it is to be held in Boston from December 27 to 29. It is the first time the national convention has been held in New England. In 14 years' activity, and, since the fraternity is of New England origin, it is evident that important and strong chapters in the college of this section and a multitude of local alumni, a large and merry gathering is assured.

The hosts of this convention will be the Sigma Tau chapter at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the Boston Alumni Association of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

The convention will open Thursday, December 27, and the national convention has been

It is not the fault of the instructor. It is not as familiar with his work as it should be. Some students are slow. The lecture does not come at the right moment. The professor is not always in his home on this important study. We'd like to see more of these classes, the importance of this study.

The Institute is very glad to have the man. The Institute is very glad to have the man. The Institute is very glad to have the man.

For instance, should be a short task. The word "simple" is used relatively. It seems to be human nature itself. It is not the fault of the instructor.
