TECH WAXES POETIC OVERTOBER

Carrollton, Texas

September 20

Having torn a leaf of Edgeworth paper, Mr. M. Murray has written:

"To Autumn"

"Autumn, when the harvest is over, and the leaves begin to fall and wither, there is a particular charm and beauty about the season. The colors of the leaves are a riot of oranges, reds, and yellows, and the air is crisp and cool. It is a time for reflection and introspection, a time to appreciate the beauty of nature and the passing of the seasons."

--M. Murray

Edgeworth Extra High Grade

Smoking Tobacco

---

T. C. A. EXPRESS THOUGHTS

The T. C. A. wishes to take this opportunity to thank all students who have written to him. Your letters have been most encouraging and have helped to make the job more enjoyable.

[Continued from page one]

J. C. Schroeter

THE TECH

Editorial Staff

Monday, November 16, 1928

TECH WAXES POETIC OVER TOBER

Carrollton, Texas

September 20

Having torn a leaf of Edgeworth paper, Mr. M. Murray has written:

"To Autumn"

"Autumn, when the harvest is over, and the leaves begin to fall and wither, there is a particular charm and beauty about the season. The colors of the leaves are a riot of oranges, reds, and yellows, and the air is crisp and cool. It is a time for reflection and introspection, a time to appreciate the beauty of nature and the passing of the seasons."

--M. Murray

Edgeworth Extra High Grade

Smoking Tobacco

---

T. C. A. EXPRESS THOUGHTS

The T. C. A. wishes to take this opportunity to thank all students who have written to him. Your letters have been most encouraging and have helped to make the job more enjoyable.

[Continued from page one]