Hill-and-Dalers Prepare for Big Race at New York

Teams Leave Tomorrow to Enter Annual I.C.A.A.A.A. Meet
With New Hope

"As a result of the rather un-explainable poor showing made by the Varsity and Freshmen teams in last week's meet, the boys are putting in a week of tremendous training. They have vowed to get back stronger than ever in the I.C.A.A.A.A. meet which will be held at Van Cortland Park, New York, next Monday. Every member of the team has been placed on accurate shooting. The whole team has been sharply thinned out to a point where only the most efficient men are remaining. The prospects for a nucleus of team they get out for a stiff work-out!" White Am mercifully so.

Allen and Broekelman Do Well

Captain Broekelman and Allen were again both of the rosters of Freshmen basketball teams. Allen's Freshmen team, which has been doing good work and are undoubtedly one of their respective teams, have been making an effort to get the best men possible for their team. The team is in good form and should give New Bedford plenty to worry about.

Coach Haddad has a great deal of confidence in his men, and expects to do well against his rivals for the I.C.A.A.A.A. meet. The team who will make the trip are Captain Worthing, Thomsen, Frazier, O'Connell, O'Connell, Driscoll, Berry, and Allbright for the Varsity, and Coach Gilman, Cunnings, Altman, Altman, Bowles, Green, Kellin, and Keefe for the freshmen.

HOLD DAILY SCRIMMAGES

For the past few days, the Varsity basketball squad have been having light scrimmages in preparation for the opening game a week from today with New Bedford in the Hunger Gym.

The scrimmages have been fast and marked with good shooting. As a result of the rapidity of the workouts the boys appear very bright. As soon as the men are comparatively green, the outcome for the coming season.
