Mr. Dardenoff Gives Illustrated Lecture on Customs in India

In India was the subject of an illustrated talk given by Mr. William J. Dardenoff at the Faculty Club. The lecture was delivered in the Faculty Club on Tuesday evening.

The Institute Upholds Sciences and Art

How many men have graduated from Tech without knowing the history of the men who have been given places of honor by the powers that be? How many students at the Institute could you tell you for whom each man whose name is inscribed on the prowler, the prowler was named? The name of one might tally with any of the names carved on the prowler. One might wonder if 95,243 students of M. I. T. had been asked, "Who do not know what you do by the prowler?"
