Punishment Fails
To Stop Crime
Is Claim Of Lawyer

Crime is Employed Of Only
Useless and Fickle Life
He Asserts

(Continued from Page 1)

according to Mr. Darrow, "Therefore, he stated, "Religion is no guide." In

Conscience A

In Conscience A

In Consciousness, Mr. Darrow next disposed of conscience as a guide.

"What makes you think it does know?" were his words. "It knows how hard it is to stop a person from doing

He disposed of conscience by showing

It that it was an impotent

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to determine

It that it has the power to change

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to

It that it has the power to