MUSICAL CLUBS GIVE CHRISTMAS CONCERT TONIGHT

Annual Technology Social Event is at Longwood Towers in Brookline

DANCE CONCENTRATES

Feature Act is in Nature of a Surprise; Sales by James A. Yates

Technology's Musical Clubs will hold their annual Christmas Concert and Dance at Longwood Towers tonight.

"This concert will be the first at Longwood Towers since the fire, which destroyed the club last year," said Mr. Yates, "and will be one of the best in the history of Technology. The programs of the club are always well received and this year's will be no exception. The concert will begin at 8 o'clock, and will be immediately followed by the dance until 12 o'clock. At 12 o'clock, the program will start again, and will continue until 2 o'clock. The dance will follow immediately, and will last until 2 o'clock. A varied program of music will be featured, and the guests will be entertained by the club's best performers. The dance will be open to all members of the Institute, and will be a great success.

This concert has always been one of the most enjoyable events of the year, and the students would welcome the opportunity to attend. It is a great pleasure to be able to present such a fine program, and we are confident that the students will enjoy themselves.

This concert is one of the highlights of the Christmas season, and the students would welcome the opportunity to attend. It is a great pleasure to be able to present such a fine program, and we are confident that the students will enjoy themselves.