The ten initiates of the Delta Upsilon fraternity, of the Boston University chapter, were initiated and given a banquet at the Delta Upsilon House on Saturday evening. Several prominent alumnus were present including Professor Frank Vogel, head of the German department; Dr. Lynn G. Howland, head of the Department of Chemistry and Physics, and several New England chapters were present.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA
The Lambda Chi Amphi, Friday night of the annual Tri-Deltas, occurred Friday at the Lambda Chi Alpha house. A large group of students attended.

PHI GAMA DELTA
A meeting was held at the Phi Gamma Delta house last Friday night. Dick Edward's Orchestra furnished the music, and there were about fifty boys present.

PHI KAPPA
The Phi Kappa house was also the scene of an initiation supper last Saturday night.

PHI SIGMA
Twenty Phi Sigma undergraduates entertained their guests at a formal dinner at the house of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. ('80, '81), and Lieutenant and Mrs. W. C. ('80, '81), the Phi Sigma house, at their annual dinners.

SIGMA CHI
After the dinner, the party adjourned to the house at 1009 Beacon Street, where Ruby Newman's Orchestra was already playing. There they were joined by some of the brothers who had been able to go to the dinner, and the group enjoyed the evening immensely.

This Christmas decorations had been tastefully arranged under the supervision of Mr. C. H. Doherty, '86, and a large igloo Christmas tree made the whole house look like a winter wonderland.

SIGMA NU
At the Sigma Nu house on Saturday night, there was great difficulty in persuading the guests to leave. The occasion was a perfect informal college party, and the white and black mascot presented to the club by the Sigma Nu fraternity of the University of Michigan, created a feeling of camaraderie in keeping with the spirit of the occasion. At water's edge were two large and beautiful Christmas trees. At the close, the guests were carried away in a moonlight launch.

TAU BETA PI
Initiation of thirteen members of the Tau Beta Pi national engineering honorary society, was held at the Engineering Club house last Saturday evening. Among those initiated were Charles A. Stone '88 of the Civil Engineering course, and an honorary member.

The initiation began at 6 o'clock, followed by a dinner in honor of the occasion with fifteen college party guests, and the party was carried on until the close of the session. At about 11:30 refreshments were served.

THETA CHI
The annual Christmas dance of the Theta Chi took place Saturday night at their house, with a large and happy crowd of guests. A few alumni and college friends were present.

After the dance, a supper was served.
