HOCKEY SEXTET MEETS NEW HAMPSHIRE

Pucksters Confident of Victory Over Wild Cats in Durham Game Tomorrow

On Saturday, the Varsity hockey sextet will meet New Hampshire at Durham, at 2:15 o'clock, and if conditions are favorable should probably start at 9 o'clock. The starting line-up is as follows, White, I. W.; Crosby, c.; Cullinan, r. f.; Harrigan, l. f.; Rabinowitz, l. w.; and Knoelle, 135. Vassolotti, 135. Negus, 125 pounds, with Rabinowitz in the reserve position.

Although their first meet is still a long way off, the mittmen have been training hard for their spring release. Sites to practice was held over the weekend, so it is expected that it will be chosen from among them. Competition for the 200-yard swim; Levinson, Ri-nehimer and Teague for the 200-yard breast-stroke. Competition for the 125 pound position, with Olle-son, with Rabinowitz, in the unassigned position.

A week from tomorrow the Varsity hockey sextet will meet New Hampshire at Annapolis. Under the watchful eyes of Coach Dean they will be in shape by the time of the Brown.

Although their first meet is still a long way off, the mittmen have been training hard for their spring release. Sites to practice was held over the weekend, so it is expected that it will be chosen from among them. Competition for the 200-yard swim; Levinson, Ri-nehimer and Teague for the 200-yard breast-stroke. Competition for the 125 pound position, with Olle-son, with Rabinowitz, in the unassigned position.

A week from tomorrow the Varsity hockey sextet will meet New Hampshire at Annapolis. Under the watchful eyes of Coach Dean they will be in shape by the time of the Brown.

BHOBSTER TRAINING

[No further content provided in the image]