As We See the Movies

METROPOLITAN

Coming from a long Broadway run at super-pricey prices, F. W. Munn's Escape from the Mousetrap will meet the same enthusiastic reception as the) metropolitan with which it was shown in New York. This is not primarily an escape story, but the fact that it gives the stage direction, playing opposite George Arliss, who is also

As we see the movies

The Hangar Gym was crowded to over-flowing, Saturday, at the opening of the Meehan Gym. The students were numbered in their thousands, and the air was filled with the tuneful sounds of the orchestra. The gymnastics were performed with precision and skill, and the audience was thoroughly entertained.

FIVE YEARS HAVE WE WAITED

Graduates who have always wanted to assume the defensive and deprecatory attitude with regard to the sports of their alma mater no longer need the

WHAT'S NEXT

In the not so distant future, a time is coming when the check from home will be only a fond memory. You probably look forward to those days with mingled feelings. You wel-came the idea of being on your own, knowing that money earned is doubly satisfactory for it represents accomplishment.
