>Very Successful Season Reported By Musical Clubs

>Technological Musicals - an organization with a greater total enrollment than any other activity in the school - has been the object of much speculation. The spirit of good fellowship that has prevailed all evening still seems to be in evidence. None of the outside world was her has been able to penetrate the ballroom and three cheers of enthusiasm were given to the Prom Girl. To the observant, the guests seem to be somewhat more real and less formal; no doubt because of the four boys present at the event.
