The purpose of this series of talks announced by the Technical Student Association is to help the students realize the importance of continuing their education in foreign countries. This talk was given by Mr. Richard S. Roberts, a prominent industrial engineer, and is being distributed among the students.

The purpose of this series of talks announced by the Technical Student Association is to help the students realize the importance of continuing their education in foreign countries. This talk was given by Mr. Richard S. Roberts, a prominent industrial engineer, and is being distributed among the students.