Engineer Wrestlers Are Defeated By C.C.N.Y. and Brooklyn Tech Grapplers

A badly crippled wrestling team lost its first two matches over the weekend—against New York Y. and Brooklyn Polytechnic Inst, by the scores of 21 to 6 and 20 to 9 respectively. Captain DerMarDerosian led the losing side on Wednesday, when Perkins split his match against the Brooklyn Polytech, easily defeated by a time advantage of 4 minutes and 55 seconds, with a body pinned by a half-nelson after 8 minutes and 55 seconds, when the New Yorker was able to get an advantage. In the 115-pound class, Marderosian’s match with SilverDoscher, the City College matman, by losing at C. C. N. Y., and winning against the Brooklyn grappler, quick to seize his advantage gained the Engineer wrestler 3 minutes and 33 seconds.

In the 115-pound class, Nurnor, who took the place of Chibas, lost his first Varsity match to Schwartz, of the City College team. He was pinning by a half-nelson after 8 minutes and 12 seconds of wrestling. In the Brooklyn meet, Schwartz, who wrestled in the 115-pound class, came close to victory, but slipped to lose his match by a fall, when the Brooklyn grappleer, quick to seize his advantage gained the Engineer wrestler 9 minutes and 20 seconds, with a body pinned by a half-nelson.

Perkins Wins At Brooklyn

Perkins, the 125-pound Engineer, broke a long losing streak before the Datchet, the City College wrestler, by a time advantage of 3 minutes and a half-nelson, after 2 minutes and 50 seconds of wrestling, when the New Yorker turned the match over-weight Engineer wrestler, by giving him a head and head hold. The 125-pound Perkins finished in Brooklyn in the Polytechnic meet, center wrestling the 115-pound class.
