New Board Chosen For Comic Monthly

Chairman of Institution "Voo Doo" Investigation Committee

Institution Organizes Vote In Favor Of Continuance Of Comic Monthly

The vote went to favor the continuation of the comic monthly with the following results: 47 in favor of continuing Voo Doo and 47 in favor of abolishing the comic monthly. At the joint meeting held with the Advisory Committee, the Voo Doo Committee stated that they were prepared to abide by the vote of the entire student body and to continue Voo Doo if they were assured that the comic monthly would go on record as disapproving of the comic monthly as such. The vote on the issue was taken by secret ballot, and the results indicate that Voo Doo will continue to exist as an off-campus publication.

New Board Chosen

The New England section of the Student Board of Directors has announced the resignation of the senior board and the election of a new board. The new board consists of: E. Reynolds as Business Manager, S. Ford, Jr. as Features Manager, and T. R. Reynolds as Editor. The new board will be responsible for the operation of Voo Doo for the remainder of the year.

Investigation Committee

At the joint meeting held with the advisory committee, the Voo Doo Committee stated that they were prepared to abide by the vote of the entire student body and to continue Voo Doo if they were assured that the comic monthly would go on record as disapproving of the comic monthly as such. The vote on the issue was taken by secret ballot, and the results indicate that Voo Doo will continue to exist as an off-campus publication.
