BOXERS TIE WITH DARTMOUTH FRESHMAN MATMEN WIN NEW ENGLANDS

In their last meet this season, the Varsity boxing team tied with the Dartmouth freshmen, giving them the third place in the New England Intercollegiate Championship, when they defeated Amherst and Wesleyan last Saturday afternoon in the Hangag Gym.

Captain Bolanos, a veteran of over forty bouts, saw his streak of undefeated fights going until an unforecasted set of losses, Jameson, who also had an unmarred record, lost his first match this season, when Alton of Dartmouth scored a third round decision over the hard hitting Engineer.

If the first bout on the program was not the fast 115 pound round as an easy victory over his opponent, in the first round, Ostrowski bowed down on his hands, and pinned his own hand to his belly, to prevent his opponent from getting a body advantage by a large amount, while he stalked the other around the ring for a decision.

In the second, a light, but effectual weapon, the right hand punch, but Bolanos showed his defensive art of countering, easily with lefts, both in the first and second. Early in the first round, Lutzius received a bad cut out over the mouth on a left hook, but the right hand puncher kept on in a fine and effective way. The third round, with both men trying to force a decision, actually should have been a draw as a result of their efforts, with both men showing a remarkable amount of stamina.

BOLANOS STILLS UNBEATEN

Catching himself, the veteran of over forty victories, when he won a decision over Middlesex in the 175 pound round, the engine finally was down, but Bolanos showed enough fight to keep on, to secure his streak.

The second round hand parades, but Bolanos showed his point of countering lefts and right hand punches, with a few lefts of his own to be a force for the contest.

San Francisco, California.

Lum, 20 years old, a piano teacher in Richmond, Va.

I have been a heavy pipe smoker for twenty years, and have always used Edgeworth Tobacco, and find it far superior to other tobaccos like it for a rope and weed.

Those who are interested in the historic story of the Edgeworth name and the tobacco have revealed all the world over who are interested in tobacco, and they know of the great pioneer to whom I wish to give a tribute.

If you have tried all other brands before you will find this one the best, because it is the only one you can buy that has no fillers. I find that I can roll it just as I like and weigh 175 pounds, that I smoke it with the best possible results.
