NOTICES and ANNOUNCEMENTS

Of General Interest

Quantum Mechanics

Prof. W. Heisenberg

Wednesday, March 20, 4 p.m., Room 10-250

Professor W. Heisenberg, Director of the Institute of Theoretical Physics of the University of Berlin, will lecture on the above subject.

The lecture is open to students and members of the instructing staff.

Hydraulic Experimentation

Dr. Ing. Theodor Rehbock

Thursday, March 21, 2 P.M., Room 5-330

Dr. Ing. Theodor Rehbock, Professor of Hydraulics at the Technische Hochschule of Karlsruhe, Germany, will deliver a series of lectures on "Hydraulics for Engineers" at 2 P.M. This series of lectures is open to students and members of the instructing staff.

Evolution

Prof. Kirle F. Mather

Saturday, March 23, 9 and 12 o'clock, Room 5-330

Professor Kirle F. Mather of Harvard will speak on "Evolution" at the lecture hours in English and History Hall. The lecture is open to students and members of the instructing staff.

Meetings of Eastern College Personnel Officers

Friday, March 22 and Saturday, March 23

Group Discussion Meetings on Personnel Problems. Full information regarding topics, time and place of meetings may be had at the Personnel Office.

MEETING OF A.L.E.E. TO BE HELD FRIDAY

Members of Senior Class Will Address Student Branch

Two members of the Senior class, Charles A. Turner, and Malcolm M. Hubbard, will address the principal speakers at the next meeting of the Student Branch of the A. I. E. E., to be held in Room 10-370 at three o'clock on Friday. The subject will be of especial interest to all who are interested in electricity and will be of especial interest to all who are interested in the application of the science after the graduation of the speakers at the meetings of this topic, by engineers and students. The two speakers will speak on "The Outlook of the Development of Electrical Literature". The purpose of the meeting is to give the students a general idea of their topic. The two speakers will speak on "The Outlook of the Development of Electrical Engineering".

TUCKER P. SMITH

New York, Executive Secretary of the National Committee on Military Education, formerly of the Y. M. C. A., will address a meeting on The R.O.T.C.—Is It a Menace?

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 26

at 6 o'clock

THE RIVERBANK COURT HOTEL

(Open Daily. Mix. 5:30 to 8:30 P.M.)

To Be There, Support Whitley Side of the Question You Favour, and to Express Your Opinion on Compulsory Military Training in Colleges.

Due to the impracticability of securing a room in the Jackson building, this meeting will be held in the Court Restaurant of the Riverbank Court Hotel, on Main Ave, instead of Mason Ave, entrance at M. I. T.

Wednesday, March 20, 1929

For College Parties

—small and large, The Moderat Hall, for 50 guests, the Room B, two rooms for 100 guests, may be opened into the EIGHTY- EIGHT- EIGHTY- ROOM for dancing to Leon Rosenman's music.

Hotel BRUNSWICK

for particulars

SIMPlex WIRE AND CABLE

235 DE VION STREET

WILLIAMSBURG, BALTIMORE

SIMPLEX WIRE A CABLE @

Chicago San Francisco New York

Overeating and Drinking Worst

For the Reform of Bad Habits

To Be Avoided

(Continued from Page 1)

good physical condition, but it will be beneficial in a surprising distance through the arm of the World. The best thing that diet that know of is the following:

BREAKFAST

One cup of tea or coffee. One of eggs. Toast or bread. Butter or milk. 0.5 morning.

LUNCH

Light and substantial. Boiled beef, lamb, mutton, or fish, boiled or baked. Vegetables and fruits in season. Baked rice and milk or semolina. 0.5 morning.

A light, teat or bread.

DINNER

Supper

Cold meat (ham, beef, mutton), lamb, mutton, or fish, or one small steak. (Only 0.5 cup of milk.) toast or bread, fruit of any kind, and milk or semolina. 0.5 evening.

Professor William T. Hall will be the speaker at a meeting of the Chemical Society tonight in the North Hall of Walker Memorial at 7:30 o'clock. The subject of his lecture will be "The Natural Products of Yeast." This address is one which has been of considerable interest and is attended by a large number of scientists from the University of Baltimore.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY

Holds Discussion

Professor Professor William T. Hall will be the speaker at a meeting of the Chemical Society tonight in the North Hall of Walker Memorial at 7:30 o'clock. The subject of his lecture will be "The Natural Products of Yeast." This address is one which has been of considerable interest and is attended by a large number of scientists from the University of Baltimore.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY HOLDS DISCUSSION

Professor Professor William T. Hall will be the speaker at a meeting of the Chemical Society tonight in the North Hall of Walker Memorial at 7:30 o'clock. The subject of his lecture will be "The Natural Products of Yeast." This address is one which has been of considerable interest and is attended by a large number of scientists from the University of Baltimore.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY HOLDS DISCUSSION

Professor Professor William T. Hall will be the speaker at a meeting of the Chemical Society tonight in the North Hall of Walker Memorial at 7:30 o'clock. The subject of his lecture will be "The Natural Products of Yeast." This address is one which has been of considerable interest and is attended by a large number of scientists from the University of Baltimore.