Detail Of Police Will Keep Order
On Carnival Day

Portable Jail Will Consist Of Old France Park Zoo Animal Cage

Order will be maintained at the All-Technology Carnival, April 14th, by a portable jail and a detail of police. The jail will be a strong and solid cage which has been obtained from the Franklin Park Zoo for use during the Carnival. A small detail will be on the Carnival lot to keep any disturbances which may occur under control. A police officer will ensure a orderly peaceful evenning. The committee has not yet decided whether or not to charge admission to the Carnival. Should the proceed to be collected, the proceeds would be turned over to the Benefit Committee. The committee reserves the right to change its decision at any time. In addition to the above police, there will be a squad of special constables to prevent any disturbance. Any students who get extremely rowdy will be taken before the police officer and removed from the Carnival grounds. The selling cabins will be running under the public order advisor.

ENDOWMENT PLAN SHOWS SIGNS OF EXCEEDING 1928

30 to 40 Students Are Signing Up Daily in Main Office

Appoint Sub-Committee to Aid in Promoting and Information

Approximately one-third of the Senior Class have already signed up for the Student Endowment Insurance Plan although the campaign began less than a week ago. Between thirty and forty students the plan in the initial stages, but as the drive progresses, the number of students will increase. Many students have been interested in the plan and have many questions regarding it. The Sub-Committee to the Class Glees is now in a position to put the plan together. The plan is designed to assist the Student Endowment Corporation to the amount of $75,000 at the start of the Class in three years. The plan is open to all students who are interested in the plan and the后面的句子是：...
