WRESTLERS HAVE BAD SEASON

Captain DerMarderosian Is Outstanding Star On Varsity Wrestling Team

By PAUL A. ROBERT

Loosing all of their eight meets, this season, the Varsity wrestling team ended one of the most unsatisfactory years on record. Winning the first meet this year was largely due to the lack of experienced men in the intercollegiate classes, and insufficient practice.

Captain DerMarderosian, the 156-pound grappler, was the outstanding star of the Eastern Intercollegiate Championship after having been defeated by the first string. In the 157-pound division, Captain DerMarderosian won the New England Championship, to a decision. Captain DerMarderosian was chosen as the outstanding star of the season, capturing the 145-pound division, with a clever body control. Marderosian wrestled a very dominating style throughout the season, but stone scored a fall in the 175-pound division, losing to the Engineers, 14 to 9, Perkins, Captain DerMarderosian, who won the 145-pound championship to a decision, but Stone scored a fall in the 175-pound division, losing to the Engineers, 14 to 9.

In the Indoor Championships, the Varsity had the best showing of the season, keeping with the first string. Captain DerMarderosian was the only wrestler of the Varsity team that figured in a match. Captain DerMarderosian won the New England Championship, to a decision. Captain DerMarderosian was chosen as the outstanding star of the season, capturing the 145-pound division, with a clever body control. Marderosian wrestled a very dominating style throughout the season, but stone scored a fall in the 175-pound division, losing to the Engineers, 14 to 9.

For College Parties

The T. J. T. A. official athletic coach holds the event to be held in the Varsity Gym. The coach has an opportunity to see the match at close range, and will be allowed into the ring for the event. The matches are being played before are also urged to come and see the match. Captain DerMarderosian was the outstanding star of the season, capturing the 145-pound division, with a clever body control. Marderosian wrestled a very dominating style throughout the season, but stone scored a fall in the 175-pound division, losing to the Engineers, 14 to 9.

For College Parties

The M. T. A. official athletic coach holds the event to be held in the Varsity Gym. The coach has an opportunity to see the match at close range, and will be allowed into the ring for the event. The matches are being played before are also urged to come and see the match. Captain DerMarderosian was the outstanding star of the season, capturing the 145-pound division, with a clever body control. Marderosian wrestled a very dominating style throughout the season, but stone scored a fall in the 175-pound division, losing to the Engineers, 14 to 9.

Captain DerMarderosian was chosen as the outstanding star of the season, capturing the 145-pound division, with a clever body control. Marderosian wrestled a very dominating style throughout the season, but stone scored a fall in the 175-pound division, losing to the Engineers, 14 to 9.

Nameless Stars

The M. T. T. A. official athletic coach holds the event to be held in the Varsity Gym. The coach has an opportunity to see the match at close range, and will be allowed into the ring for the event. The matches are being played before are also urged to come and see the match. Captain DerMarderosian was the outstanding star of the season, capturing the 145-pound division, with a clever body control. Marderosian wrestled a very dominating style throughout the season, but stone scored a fall in the 175-pound division, losing to the Engineers, 14 to 9.

Lacrosae Candidates Select A Captain

William Olmstead is Chosen to Lead Team at Meeting

William Olmstead, Jr. '29 was selected captain of the lacrosse team for the present season, in a meeting held on Friday afternoon.

At the same time James E. Harriss, Jr. '29, was appointed assistant manager.

Olmstead, who lives from New York City, boarded at Boyer's High School in Brooklyn, New York, after being graduated from the Brooklyn College.

He is now taking Mechanical Engineering at the Institute, and is a member of Theta Xi Fraternity. Olmstead is partly responsible for the very fine showing of the Institute team last year, and is expected to lead the team to another good year this season.