This issue of the newspaper is about the carnival on campus. The carnival is mentioned as a way to relieve the stress of exams and reports. The article also mentions that the college is preparing an extra-large edition of the newspaper to cover the event. There are also mentions of other campus events, such as a play and a lecture. The newspaper also includes advertisements for local businesses and a notice for a sale at the college bookstore.