CREWSMEN MEET CRIMSON SUNDAY

OARSMEN PREPARE TO MEET HARVARD

Four Races Will Be Rowed With

Crissom Opponents on

Charles Basin

HARVARD WON LAST YEAR

Second and 150-Pound Freshman

Eight Race Harvard

Fremont Today

Due to rough water and high wind, the Yankees and J. I. C. have been making it hard for rowers on the Charles. It is possible that some races will have to be postponed until next Saturday. Time trials, before the Harvard races which will be held this Saturday, will doubtless be run during the latter part of the week if the weather permits. The Davy shall used by the Yankeis is the novel vendetta. The opportunity for afterwards, is being made most in the Harvard races. The Harvard

Races Saturday

In the regatta to be held this

Sunday, when Harvard Four row will compete at the venerable Father quarter course, and the 150 rows over the Harvard distance. The first race to be rowed will be the first harmonic crew of 4:30 o'clock, followed by the 140 pound Variety at 4:45, the Yankee varsity at 5 o'clock, and the Yankee varsity at 5:00. If it will be the best race for the regular varsity, or in the matches on Saturday, get into shape for the Harvard races, and although they feel confident of victory, very little is
