LACROSSE PLAYERS SHOW IMPROVEMENT

Team Meets Harvard Tomorrow in First Collegiate Tie

Supplemented by several freshmen, the Boston Lacrosse Club defeated the Harvard Varsity by a score of 15-9 to end a 2-2 tie in the final meeting of the season. The game was played at the Harvard Stadium in Cambridge, Mass., and was the 32nd meeting of the two teams since 1885.

The Harvard team, which has been improving steadily all season, has won the past three meetings. The Boston team, which has been gaining in confidence, has lost only once to the strong Harvard team this year.

The emphasis on the game was placed on the Boston team, which has only played once. The Crimson team, coached by Bill Olmstead who scored the only goal, was defeated by the Boston team.

The game will be played tomorrow afternoon in the Colonnade Stadium.
