TRACK TEAM MEETS N.E. CHAMPIONS

ENGINEERS EXPECT STIFF COMPETITION BY MAINE RUNNERS

Technology Captain Faces Hard Test in Quarter Against Maine's Best

BLACK HOLDS 3 TITLES

When the Varsity track team meets the University of Maine team tomorrow afternoon they will have different opposition of the season in dual meets. The Maine team last year won the New England Intercollegiate title and have with them this year the same men that made that treat. Maine defeated Rates in a dual meet earlier this season by the score of 12-6.

In the 100 yard dash, the Technology squad saw Janndi and Ladd represent them. Ladd took fourth place at Cornell last week while Janndi was first in the event. MacNaughton set a new indoor record of 2 minutes 15 seconds in the 880 yard run. The 1000 yard run was won by Richardson and Brooks. The race was run in 2 minutes 20 seconds.

In the mile run Technology has entered four good men in this event. MacNaughton, Lindsay, Richardson, and Brooks.

It is hoped that Thompson will be well enough to run for the Engineers in the two mile run. His injured ankle, sustained in the Cornell meet last week, is progressing rapidly and there is a possibility that he may represent the Institute tomorrow. McNeil and Worthington are the other Engineers entered in this event. Worthington is a cross-country man and should show up well. Lindsay and

CAMEL

WHY CAMELS ARE THE BETTER CIGARETTE

Camels contain the choicest tobaccos grown... expertly blended for matchless taste and fragrance.

They have a welcome mellowness and mildness that you will find in no other cigarette.

Smoke them as often as you like, Camels never tire your taste.

The quality of Camels is never permitted to vary. Only a superior cigarette could have won and held world leadership for all these years as Camel has done.
