N.E. MEET WILL BE HELD HERE

PLANS READY FOR GRADUATION AT SYMPHONY HALL

Announcement in Regard to Cup Etiquette and Correct Dress

ALLOW SENIORS 5 TICKETS

Field plans have been made for the graduation exercises which will be held on Monday, June 3, at 4:00 o'clock. Senator Harry E. Upham of Connecticut will be the speaker. Professor William S. Richardson, chairman of the Faculty Committee on Graduation, wishes to present the following information regarding correct academic dress and etiquette of the cap.

Candidates for Master's degree shall present themselves at the graduation exercises wearing the Doctor's cap and gown with no hood. Candidates for Master's degree shall present themselves at the exercises wearing Master's cap and gown with no hood. Candidates for Bachelor's degree shall present themselves wearing Bachelor's cap and gown with no hood.

Officers Wear Uniforms

Candidates for commissions in the R.O.T.C. are to wear their uniforms under the cap and gown, corresponding to the degree to be conferred. Students will wear caps during the exercises, removing them only during the invocation and benediction. Tickets were given to each member of the Institute and Seniors getting their marks at the delivery stamp in the Records Office will receive them in an addressed envelope with no hood.

Correct Dress

Following the address, the members of the Junior Class will present an address to the seniors and the students of the Freshman Class will present a skit and a song, both of these customs may be classed as somewhat along the lines of the Freshman Class has done much for the University of Connecticut. What has been accomplished by students and the expectations for the future are indicated by the fine showing of the interested students in theNewman Club, a student organization, which is working for the past year, concluded the last meeting held last Saturday. Maine picked to retain title on track and field. Northeastern II is only other contender for first place honors.

BLACK IS MAINE'S STAR

With an imposing list of entrants to represent them, eighteen colleges were represented by track teams to Tiffin and Saturday afternoon. The New England Intercollegiate track and field championships. The University of Maine, winners last year, had the list of participants somewhat entered again this year. Samuel Thompson, winner of the state put last year, is returning, and the team has lost to the Maine team this season.

Recruit Broken By Maine

The Maine, which has been a favorable team held last Saturday Maine scored more points than the other teams combined. Two recent ties were noted by the Maine runners and one upset. Thus it seems that Maine will have an easier time of it this year. The Saturday, Northeastern is a strong contender for the title and Maine is a favorable team to win the title last Saturday when the Maine men were defeated. The efforts col- leges were defeated.

Lauds Qualifies Last Year

Holly Cross, winner last year, is noted by the Purple team this year. Running in his place as the favorite is John Q. Dively, a junior at Holy Cross. The next two runners will be the University of Massachusetts and W. Paul and W. Shaw of Holy Cross, who will be expected to win Saturday. All of three men won last year. It is expected that Maine will be given a difficult time of it in the finals.
