THE LOUNGER
Insufficiency is a news-writer's flaw. It's Tubby himself who was absent-minded at this time. (His privilege as a literary professor.) When he did not hear the reports of the Bell contest in last week's issue, he kept his Monday morning English class awake with all sorts of deprecatory remarks at the expiration of the period of silence. And now the Lounger finds that he did not release the Bell until Friday afternoon!

It's a safe bet that any man will feel better dressed and look better dressed in NUNN-BUSH Oxford. They're Adaptable—no gaping at the side, no slipping at the heel.

It's TRAFFIC FILM
that hides the lustre of your car

THAT dull, dirty coating which accumulates on the finish of your car is Traffic Film—a result of modern highway and traffic conditions. There is only one sure and harmless way to combat Traffic Film, to retain the original lustre of the finish, or to bring that lustre back from under the dull coating which sometimes covers it.

An Auto Polish Made to Combat Traffic Film

No. 7 Dew Polish is made by du Pont, the makers of Duco. It is made especially to combat Traffic Film. No. 7 Dew Polish is a rubber-polish, with no harmful abrasives. It quickly removes Traffic Film from the finish of your car, revealing the lustre of the finish. It is also an excellent dressing for spary tires, and tires of all kinds. No. 7 Dew Polish cleans and brightens radiators and lamps. It is also an ideal polish for metal surfaces of all kinds in the home.
