WILL RETURN MONDAY

T. C. A. Sponsors Fourth Annual Camp to Be Held in Connecticut

Two hundred and forty members of the class of 1933, 20 appearance reports from the M. I. T. campus, and inership in the Engineering Service, Inc., will leave this from 2:30 o'clock for the fourth annual weekend encampment at Camp Maspago in Danube, Mass. The Technology Christian Association will sponsor this outing which was organized for the purpose of building up the spirit of the Tech men and giving them a foretaste of their new surroundings at M. I. T. and in the Engineering Service, Inc.

On the Athos campus of the East Orange girls, three times as many women as men went out to the camp, which is owned and operated by the Connecticut T. C. A., Mr. John Wells of this organization will direct the girls, while the Tech men will take care of the boys. The men's camp will consist of two large tents, one of which will be used as a sleeping tent, the other as a club room.

The Tech men's camp will consist of one large tent and several smaller ones. The camp will be located on a bluff overlooking the Connecticut River, and will be equipped with all the necessary appurtenances of a modern camp. The trees will provide the necessary shade, and the river will serve as a source of water. The camp will be located near the East Orange girls' camp, and will be under the direction of Mr. John Wells, who is the organizer of the camp.

SOCCER CANDIDATES WILL MEET

Nine Veterans Will Form Basis of This Year's Eleven

Practice for the Fall soccer season will take place later this week, and the veteran candidates will be in attendance. The team will be made up of nine veterans and a few freshmen. The veterans will be led by Captain John Bennett, who is a four-year veteran and has been the head of the Tech soccer team for the past two years. The freshmen will be led by Captain Eddy, who is a three-year veteran.

The Tech soccer team will play its first game of the season against the Harvard team on Saturday, October 22, at 3:00 p.m. The game will be played on the Harvard field, and will be a close contest.
