Hickey-Freeman CUSTOMIZED CLOTHES

The well-known Hickey-Freeman line is much the closest to custom-made garments that it is possible to find among ready-to-wear clothes. Particularly fine woolens are used—styles are correct—tailoring careful. Three-piece suits in such materials as Cheviots, Tweeds, Unfinished Worsted and Shetland ranges from $50 to $65.

OTHER MAKES

There is a large choice of suits with two pairs of trousers at three standard prices—

- $39.50
- $49.50
- $59.50

Also, many three-piece suits in conservative styles with big choice of patterns and colors.

Smithson Sages at

- $37.50

Ready-to-wear tuxedos and dresses in good quality worsteds are priced

- $39.50
- $49.50
- $75.00

OVERCOATS and TOPCOATS

Among the coats in the ready-to-wear department are both Hickey-Freeman custom models, the widely known Mandelburg line and Adler-Rochester. Harris Tweeds, Shetlands and Cheviots are a few of the materials available in both baggy and straight shoulder styles. The range of prices is wide, running from $39.50 to $75.

DIVIDEND TOO

HARVARD SQUARE STORE

Harvard Co-operative Society

You are just as much a member here as you are at Technology Branch.