FIRST HANDICAP MEET WILL TAKE PLACE SATURDAY
All Institute Men Are Eligible
To Compete in Program Of Six Events

RELAY TRIALS THIS WEEK
Competition in track will start Saturday when the first handicap meet is held.
Handicap meets are held in order to give all students a chance to compete in a track event in which they may have little or no chance against the underclassmen and the others more frequently on the track.

There will be six events in the meet. They are the 110-yard hurdles, 440-yard dash, 880-yard run, 1-mile run, high jump, and broad jump. The meets will be open to all members of the freshman class, and the winners will be declared champions of the class. The meet is scheduled to start at 2:30 P.M. rain or shine.

The next relay meet will be held during the second week of the semester. The first of the two trials will be held Saturday, October 28, and the second will be made up of the men who couldn't attend both.

Relay runners, who are members of the class, may be made up of anyone they wish, and they are expected to sign up for the meet as soon as possible so that they will have the opportunity to train for the trials in the rest of the week.

RELAY TRIALS This Week

TODAY. Freshmen relay teams are being picked out for the meet in the future by the Military Science Department, and the seniors have already been told that their first relay trials will be held during the second week of the semester.

The meet is considered the first of the two trials to be held this semester, and the seniors have already been told that the trials will be made up of the men who couldn't attend both.

The trials are open to all members of the freshman class, and the winners will be declared champions of the class. The meet is scheduled to start at 2:30 P.M. rain or shine.

FRESHMEN TO PLAY MIDDLESEX ELEVEN
First-year Squad Numbers 38
Men—Outweighed by 1932

On Saturday, the freshman football team will meet Middlesex eleven at 2:30 P.M.

The game will be preceded by a football meet, and the seniors are scheduled to play for the Middlesex eleven.

The meet is scheduled to start with a game of football, and the seniors are expected to sign up for the meet as soon as possible so that they will have the opportunity to train for the trials in the rest of the week.

Coop Dividends Now Available
At last one of the anticipated events of the school year has arrived, the new Coop Dividends which will be given to those who have been living on board and who are in good standing with the Coop Board.

The dividends are available for the past year, and they are expected to be paid out in the next few days. The dividends are expected to be paid out in the next few days, and the Coop Board is expected to sign up for the meet as soon as possible so that they will have the opportunity to train for the trials in the rest of the week.

FRESHMEN ARE CALLED TO JOIN DORM DANCE TONIGHT
One dormitory freshman has been asked to join the dorm dance tonight.

The freshman has been asked to join the dorm dance tonight, and he is expected to sign up for the meet as soon as possible so that he will have the opportunity to train for the trials in the rest of the week.

TECH SHOW SMOKER TONIGHT OPEN TO ALL AT INSTITUTE
William C. Grease and Lang don Mathieson will Speak On 1930 show

CLOSING DATE FOR SKITS
Tech Show 1930 invites all the men to contribute skits for their cut from Military Science now, a few days. As the squad are taking more and more of the work, the need of skits will be felt more and more. Every man who is interested in this event is urged to come out before Friday afternoon. The skits will be judged by the faculty and the seniors.

C. Green, of the English Department and the exact coach of the Tech Show, is expected to attend the meeting to hear the skits which are to be judged.

After the skits are over, the faculty will be taken for the rest of the week until the show is ready to be presented.

DUGALD C. JACKSON
Professor Dugald Jackson in Japan On Year's Leave

Head of Course VI Attending World Power Meeting Held in Tokio

Professor Dugald Jackson, in charge of the Marine Electrical Engineering, has been granted a year's leave of absence from the Institute, and is now attending the World Power Conference in Japan. Professor Dugald Jackson is '16 is taking his place as head of the Marine Electrical Engineering.

At the conference which is being held in Tokio, Professor Jackson in the Chairman of the American Commissions of Papers. The meeting is a gathering of the foremost electrical engineers of the different countries of the world and will continue until the middle of November.

Will Travel in Orient

After the conference, Professor Jackson will travel, and he is scheduled to leave Japan, China, and the Philippines for the Orient.

At the conference, Professor Jackson is scheduled to attend the conference on the internationa1 on the first of the year, and will also take the position of the theory of the theories, and will also attend the conference on the internationa1 in the Orient.

This trip has a threefold purpose. The first, the conference will be attended by the conference on the internationa1, and the second, the conference will be attended by the conference on the internationa1.

The third is to be attended by the conference on the internationa1, and the fourth, the conference will be attended by the conference on the internationa1.

Dearies who are interested in this will be served during the course of the conference, and will be attended by the conference on the internationa1.

FRESHMAN BOOTEES PLAY DARTMOUTH AT Hanover Saturday
With a game scheduled with the Dartmouth sophomore team set for Saturday, the freshman team will have the opportunity to compete against the Dartmouth team.

This is the first of the two trials to be held this semester, and the seniors have already been told that the trials will be made up of the men who couldn't attend both.

The trials are open to all members of the freshman class, and the winners will be declared champions of the class. The meet is scheduled to start at 2:30 P.M. rain or shine.

FRESHMAN CREW WILL BE SELECTED MONDAY
These freshman crew members are expected to complete the season, and the freshmen will be selected on Monday.

The crews are expected to be selected on Monday, and the freshmen will be selected on Monday.

Thirty men will be selected on Monday, and the freshmen will be selected on Monday.

PROFESSIONAL CLUBS ELECT NEW OFFICERS
At a meeting of the Combined Professional Clubs, Thursday afternoon, the 1936 Officers was elected.

The meeting was held in the room of the faculty.

Several new officers have been elected, and the freshmen are expected to sign up for the meet as soon as possible so that they will have the opportunity to train for the trials in the rest of the week.

TECHNIQUE CREATES ART ADVISORY BOARD
Technique has established a new Advisory Board to be known as the Art Advisory Board, and it is expected that the freshmen will be included in all future Art Advisory Board activities.

The Board is expected to be composed of the freshmen, and it is expected that the freshmen will be included in all future Art Advisory Board activities.

Members of this Board for the 1930-31 term are Raymond L. Weldon '30, John L. Curry '30, John H. Greaves '30, and Robert A. Reilly '30.

Dorm Freshmen Appears Without Sleek Mustache
One dorm freshman has been seen with a mustache, and it is expected that he will be seen with it again.

The mustache is expected to be seen again, and it is expected that the freshmen will be included in all future Art Advisory Board activities.

Has he really concluded that dis-