school. When the coach spotted the tallest collegiate it had ever seen in two years he went with the Technology squad in the knowledge that he had a lot to do with the game.

The freshmen, who were organized by a scout, were the worst team that Technology played all season and it was obvious that they had never heard of basketball before.

On the opening of the second half Buzzard faced the Dartmouth goal and after he had put shooting pressure on the Technology squad for a few minutes he was transferred to the center of the court where he had the position of center.

The game was played on the line.

Dartmouth Boy Forest Five of Twenty

Defeats Forest

Newcomer Forest will meet Dartmouth as coach of this team. Forest was a Veteran player last year but he is unable to compete this year.

All freshmen who have decided to come out for basketball are required to attend the meeting. They will meet at five o'clock in Walker Memorial and will come to the gym for practice.

Student Directory PROOFS ON DISPLAY

Proofs of this year's student directory were available in the Main Library, in Walker Memorial, and in the office of the students who should receive them. Students are asked to check whether their names, classes, and addresses are correct. If they are not, he should make the necessary corrections on the directory card he received from the school and mail same to the Secretary of the Student Directory, in McLean Hall.

UPPERCLASSMEN JOIN ADVANCED ROTC UNIT

Approximately two hundred and twenty-three students have enrolled this year in the six branches of the advanced ROTC Service offered by the M. L. T. Military Science Department, to Juniors and Seniors who have satisfactory grades.

The number of students enrolled this year is about one hundred and twenty-three more than last year. Probably the most prevalent branch of the service offered from the number of members enrolled is the Corps of Engineers, the Coast Artillery Unit, and the Signal Corps which have, however, dropped in popularity with the increasing interest in the Air Corps.

The Air Corps, which showed a large increase in enrollment this year, shows a small decrease in the Junior enrollment this year. Larger increases have been made in the Chemical Warfare, and Ordnance Unit, while the Junior enrollment has shown a small decrease in the Coast Artillery Corps and the Signal Corps.

In all, one hundred and fifty freshmen have enrolled as compared with the 1929 enrollees. The figures are as follows:

INSTITUTE TO PAY TAXES

This year, for the first time, the Institute will have to pay taxes. This is the result of state legislation passed in May, providing that the Institute will pay taxes on its real estate.

The meeting will be addressed by President Barnum, who has been an active supporter of the Institute, and will be held in the gym at ten o'clock.
