FIRST YEAR MEN MAKE MUCH NOISE AT MASS MEETING

Freshman Told of Campaign to Sell More Song Books
To Buy Shell

COACHES ENTHUSIASTIC

Hedlund, Haines are Very Optimistic Over Chances

Lead songs were being learned running from Room 100-D last Friday afternoon as 309 freshmen charmed their class and assembled practitioners at their first mass meeting.

The meeting was opened by an address by Bob Lauderdale, 21, chairman of the athletic committee: the cope of the use that the profits of the sale would be put to, namely, the purchase of a new shell, and ways and means to purchase song books. He announced the drive to sell the song books, which was the first step in an all-out drive for three weeks after October 1.

Next, after a yell, Prof. Hedlund, captain of the freshman football team, told the freshmen of the probable future of the class of 1932. He said that he was optimistic over the freshman crew, he had great confidence in the Sophomore To Tell New Shell

Summers named as new squash coach

New England Champion for Four Years Trained Under Harry Cowles

Appointment of John L. Summers, New England Professional squash champion, as the new coach of the squash team was announced. Summers was secured to meet the needs of the Institute for the coming year and meetings will be held before school Friday morning and after school Monday afternoon for the purpose of cooperation. He has been asked to work with the squash team and the practice of the squash team will be started immediately.

Baton, the undergraduate executive and yearbook of the Musical and Dramatic Society, will hold their Lipata Dinner Thursday night at the Lipata Club, 330 Main St., for the program of the year. It is only the program of two other. William B. Beals and Thomas P. Denley: two coeds, John Givens and Harold L. Livingston: as well as the three senior editors, Sarah H. D. Pengelly, Chairman; Robert S. Backus, Vice-Chairman; and Charles T. Twillicke, Secretary-Treasurer.

Tickets for the dinner, which are still available, are sold at $1.50 each and are to be purchased from anyone of the coeds. The proceeds of the dinner will be used to finance the annual dinner for the junior class.

The program for the year will be on the program for the year. It is only the program of two other. William B. Beals and Thomas P. Denley: two coeds, John Givens and Harold L. Livingston: as well as the three senior editors, Sarah H. D. Pengelly, Chairman; Robert S. Backus, Vice-Chairman; and Charles T. Twillicke, Secretary-Treasurer.

Tickets for the dinner, which are still available, are sold at $1.50 each and are to be purchased from anyone of the coeds. The proceeds of the dinner will be used to finance the annual dinner for the junior class.

SUMMERS NAMED AS NEW SQUASH COACH

New England Champion for Four Years Trained Under Harry Cowles

Appointment of John L. Summers, New England Professional squash champion, as the new coach of the squash team was announced. Summers was secured to meet the needs of the Institute for the coming year and meetings will be held before school Friday morning and after school Monday afternoon for the purpose of cooperation. He has been asked to work with the squash team and the practice of the squash team will be started immediately.

Baton, the undergraduate executive and yearbook of the Musical and Dramatic Society, will hold their Lipata Dinner Thursday night at the Lipata Club, 330 Main St., for the program of the year. It is only the program of two other. William B. Beals and Thomas P. Denley: two coeds, John Givens and Harold L. Livingston: as well as the three senior editors, Sarah H. D. Pengelly, Chairman; Robert S. Backus, Vice-Chairman; and Charles T. Twillicke, Secretary-Treasurer.

Tickets for the dinner, which are still available, are sold at $1.50 each and are to be purchased from anyone of the coeds. The proceeds of the dinner will be used to finance the annual dinner for the junior class.