CAPTAIN KIDD '33

NOT to be thwarted by technicalities, the would-be pirates of the sophomore class flung up their hands in defeat, and with a little excitement in what promised to be rather a quiet Field Day, Old City Talk, with the Sophomore President, Thomas H. Jenkins, because he is on the football team, the yeomanly efforts of sevem freshmen on masts and made away with another member, Arthur N. Rinehimer, of the Executive Committee. Since the fight took place on the steps of Walker Memorial, the Sophomore class has not been able to expropriate the...
