As We Like It

"CARRY ON"—THE SHUBERT

Jack Donahue and Lie Ditmas, both stars of the first magnitude, perform with consummate skill in "Carry On," the musical comedy which opened at the Shubert Monday night for a two weeks' stay. Where dependability counts

A forging hammer kept idle, waiting for the furnace, costs money; not only in itself, but by stalling production all along the line. Gas heat keeps the workers busy . . . keeps the production line moving every minute. Whatever the process, if it's done with heat, you can do it better with gas.

WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY

Washington and Lee University has recently acquired the stereotyped form that gives it a place among the finest in the country. It has been placed on exhibition there in the common room with the booklet which Lee used in the War, a clock which hung in the kitchen of General Custis Lee.
