SOCCER TEAM LOSES GAME AT WORCESTER

NEW YORK CITY FORUMS

Abundance of Best Players Has Bad Effect on Engineers

(Continued from page 3)

Watertown High next Saturday. The game will be played at the Coop Field at 1:30 P.M., due to the presence of the Catholic Boys, who are expected to win at least by a large margin.

Dare to find out the problems on page 4.

In addition to a detailed account of the V.I.A. program, held on Wednesday afternoon, the paper contains a resume of the program's activities during the past year, and other news of particular interest to us in this corner. The program was held at the U.S. Information Service building, recently the site of the "News" was opened. The more here chosen are as follows:

Hobbs in last year's run. Hobbs

FIRST FALL ISSUE OF VI-A NEWS OUT

Paper of Co-operative Electrical Students Contains Names of New Staff

"V.I.A. News," the official Alumni and undergraduate publication of the Cooperative program in Electrical Engineering, made its first appearance this fall with an issue published last Wednesday.

In addition to a detailed account of the V.I.A. meeting, held on Wednesday afternoon, the paper contains a resume of the program's activities during the past year, and other news of particular interest to us in this corner. The program was held at the U.S. Information Service building, recently the site of the "News" was opened. The more here chosen are as follows:

Hobbs in last year's run. Hobbs

CLOSE COMPETITION IN HANDSOME MEET

Field Events are Featured by Granold's Performances

(Continued from page 1) was close behind him to take second place, out of line at about the middle of the race. Second was New Hampshire by the narrowest margin, and third place went to New Hampshire.

FIRST FALL ISSUE OF VI-A NEWS OUT

Paper of Co-operative Electrical Students Contains Names of New Staff

"V.I.A. News," the official Alumni and undergraduate publication of the Cooperative program in Electrical Engineering, made its first appearance this fall with an issue published last Wednesday.

In addition to a detailed account of the V.I.A. program, held on Wednesday afternoon, the paper contains a resume of the program's activities during the past year, and other news of particular interest to us in this corner. The program was held at the U.S. Information Service building, recently the site of the "News" was opened. The more here chosen are as follows:

Hobbs in last year's run. Hobbs

CLOSE COMPETITION IN HANDSOME MEET

Field Events are Featured by Granold's Performances

(Continued from page 1) was close behind him to take second place, out of line at about the middle of the race. Second was New Hampshire by the narrowest margin, and third place went to New Hampshire.

FIRST FALL ISSUE OF VI-A NEWS OUT

Paper of Co-operative Electrical Students Contains Names of New Staff

"V.I.A. News," the official Alumni and undergraduate publication of the Cooperative program in Electrical Engineering, made its first appearance this fall with an issue published last Wednesday.

In addition to a detailed account of the V.I.A. program, held on Wednesday afternoon, the paper contains a resume of the program's activities during the past year, and other news of particular interest to us in this corner. The program was held at the U.S. Information Service building, recently the site of the "News" was opened. The more here chosen are as follows:

Hobbs in last year's run. Hobbs

CLOSE COMPETITION IN HANDSOME MEET

Field Events are Featured by Granold's Performances

(Continued from page 1) was close behind him to take second place, out of line at about the middle of the race. Second was New Hampshire by the narrowest margin, and third place went to New Hampshire.

FIRST FALL ISSUE OF VI-A NEWS OUT

Paper of Co-operative Electrical Students Contains Names of New Staff

"V.I.A. News," the official Alumni and undergraduate publication of the Cooperative program in Electrical Engineering, made its first appearance this fall with an issue published last Wednesday.

In addition to a detailed account of the V.I.A. program, held on Wednesday afternoon, the paper contains a resume of the program's activities during the past year, and other news of particular interest to us in this corner. The program was held at the U.S. Information Service building, recently the site of the "News" was opened. The more here chosen are as follows:

Hobbs in last year's run. Hobbs

CLOSE COMPETITION IN HANDSOME MEET

Field Events are Featured by Granold's Performances

(Continued from page 1) was close behind him to take second place, out of line at about the middle of the race. Second was New Hampshire by the narrowest margin, and third place went to New Hampshire.

FIRST FALL ISSUE OF VI-A NEWS OUT

Paper of Co-operative Electrical Students Contains Names of New Staff

"V.I.A. News," the official Alumni and undergraduate publication of the Cooperative program in Electrical Engineering, made its first appearance this fall with an issue published last Wednesday.

In addition to a detailed account of the V.I.A. program, held on Wednesday afternoon, the paper contains a resume of the program's activities during the past year, and other news of particular interest to us in this corner. The program was held at the U.S. Information Service building, recently the site of the "News" was opened. The more here chosen are as follows:

Hobbs in last year's run. Hobbs

CLOSE COMPETITION IN HANDSOME MEET

Field Events are Featured by Granold's Performances

(Continued from page 1) was close behind him to take second place, out of line at about the middle of the race. Second was New Hampshire by the narrowest margin, and third place went to New Hampshire.

FIRST FALL ISSUE OF VI-A NEWS OUT

Paper of Co-operative Electrical Students Contains Names of New Staff

"V.I.A. News," the official Alumni and undergraduate publication of the Cooperative program in Electrical Engineering, made its first appearance this fall with an issue published last Wednesday.

In addition to a detailed account of the V.I.A. program, held on Wednesday afternoon, the paper contains a resume of the program's activities during the past year, and other news of particular interest to us in this corner. The program was held at the U.S. Information Service building, recently the site of the "News" was opened. The more here chosen are as follows:

Hobbs in last year's run. Hobbs

CLOSE COMPETITION IN HANDSOME MEET

Field Events are Featured by Granold's Performances

(Continued from page 1) was close behind him to take second place, out of line at about the middle of the race. Second was New Hampshire by the narrowest margin, and third place went to New Hampshire.

FIRST FALL ISSUE OF VI-A NEWS OUT

Paper of Co-operative Electrical Students Contains Names of New Staff

"V.I.A. News," the official Alumni and undergraduate publication of the Cooperative program in Electrical Engineering, made its first appearance this fall with an issue published last Wednesday.

In addition to a detailed account of the V.I.A. program, held on Wednesday afternoon, the paper contains a resume of the program's activities during the past year, and other news of particular interest to us in this corner. The program was held at the U.S. Information Service building, recently the site of the "News" was opened. The more here chosen are as follows:

Hobbs in last year's run. Hobbs

CLOSE COMPETITION IN HANDSOME MEET

Field Events are Featured by Granold's Performances

(Continued from page 1) was close behind him to take second place, out of line at about the middle of the race. Second was New Hampshire by the narrowest margin, and third place went to New Hampshire.

FIRST FALL ISSUE OF VI-A NEWS OUT

Paper of Co-operative Electrical Students Contains Names of New Staff

"V.I.A. News," the official Alumni and undergraduate publication of the Cooperative program in Electrical Engineering, made its first appearance this fall with an issue published last Wednesday.

In addition to a detailed account of the V.I.A. program, held on Wednesday afternoon, the paper contains a resume of the program's activities during the past year, and other news of particular interest to us in this corner. The program was held at the U.S. Information Service building, recently the site of the "News" was opened. The more here chosen are as follows:

Hobbs in last year's run. Hobbs

CLOSE COMPETITION IN HANDSOME MEET

Field Events are Featured by Granold's Performances

(Continued from page 1) was close behind him to take second place, out of line at about the middle of the race. Second was New Hampshire by the narrowest margin, and third place went to New Hampshire.

FIRST FALL ISSUE OF VI-A NEWS OUT

Paper of Co-operative Electrical Students Contains Names of New Staff

"V.I.A. News," the official Alumni and undergraduate publication of the Cooperative program in Electrical Engineering, made its first appearance this fall with an issue published last Wednesday.

In addition to a detailed account of the V.I.A. program, held on Wednesday afternoon, the paper contains a resume of the program's activities during the past year, and other news of particular interest to us in this corner. The program was held at the U.S. Information Service building, recently the site of the "News" was opened. The more here chosen are as follows:

Hobbs in last year's run. Hobbs

CLOSE COMPETITION IN HANDSOME MEET

Field Events are Featured by Granold's Performances

(Continued from page 1) was close behind him to take second place, out of line at about the middle of the race. Second was New Hampshire by the narrowest margin, and third place went to New Hampshire.

FIRST FALL ISSUE OF VI-A NEWS OUT

Paper of Co-operative Electrical Students Contains Names of New Staff

"V.I.A. News," the official Alumni and undergraduate publication of the Cooperative program in Electrical Engineering, made its first appearance this fall with an issue published last Wednesday.

In addition to a detailed account of the V.I.A. program, held on Wednesday afternoon, the paper contains a resume of the program's activities during the past year, and other news of particular interest to us in this corner. The program was held at the U.S. Information Service building, recently the site of the "News" was opened. The more here chosen are as follows:

Hobbs in last year's run. Hobbs