FRESHMEN CAST VOTE IN CHOOSING OFFICERS
Huston and Bell Are Elected To Institute Committee
As 450 Vote
OFFICIALS IN APPROVAL

John W. Regan Jr., was elected president of the Class of 1933 Wednesday as the largest vote on record for that position. Regan was elected with 450 votes. Vice President, Franklin M. Peck, and Treasurer, Otto L. Leitch, were re-elected.

John Regan, a sophomore at Technology, was chosen president of the Class of 1933 Wednesday as the largest vote on record for that position. The candidates received 450 votes, a record for a single election of that class. Mr. Regan will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by Mr. Franklin M. Peck, who will be vice president.

The election was held in the formal dorm dance to be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

For the second time this year the dorm meeting will gather and make ready for the formal election of officers for the coming year. The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.

The election will be held in the north east corner of the Student Union Building. The candidate who received the largest vote will serve as president for the coming year, and then he will be succeeded by the vice president.