THE METROPOLITAN

In "Metropolitan," which opened in Boston last week, the names of Mickey and Blakley Black appear as the leading players. The young couple has a built-in high society. Faced by circumstances to which they are not accustomed, Mickey and Blakley Black sometimes feel that they are falling in love with each other, but this is not a serious problem. Mickey and Blakley Black are soon to be married, and it is expected that the marriage will be celebrated in a grand style, including a wedding party in the next all-university social event.

At a meeting of over two hundred rooks of McCall University a resolution was adopted calling for the admission of women to the student body. The resolution was passed by a large majority, and it is expected that the decision will be followed by the admission of women in the fall of this year.

Student workers in the University of Colorado were granted a prolonged Christmas vacation, as their scholarship was paid in full. This action was taken in consultation with the McCall University board, and it is expected that the decision will be followed by the admission of women in the fall of this year.
