RIFLE TEAM WINS FROM BOSTON CLUB IN SECOND MATCH

Engineers Show Great Ability and Promise to Make Good Record

FACE HEAVY SCHEDULE

The rifle team's next contest will be held at the Harvard Rifle Club, with a line-up of Harvard against the Boston Rifle Club. The match will be held on the Longfellow Range, and will consist of a series of shots fired at a distance of 200 yards. The competition will be open to all members of the Harvard Rifle Club, and is expected to attract a large crowd.

GYMNASIUM EXHIBIT AT POSSE NISSEN

Freshmen Look Good in Meet - But Team Shows Lack

Posses Nissen School was the scene of the opening exhibition of the gym class, under the direction of Manager H. B. Nissen. Manager Nissen arranged for the event, and the exhibition was held in the gymnasium. As a whole the team was not at its best, but the freshmen showed that they were capable of winning if they work. The exhibition was held in order to show the machines on hand and the equipment that was afforded them in the exhibition in order to show the value of gym class equipment that is taxed. Their work is not at all as good as could be expected and with some improvement the team can be competitive in all of the events.

HOCKEY TEAM TRAINS FOR SEASON OPENER

Variety Meets Second Team in Light Practice Game
