FACULTY VOTES CHANGE IN MARKING PLAN

HOCKEY SIX IS PRIMED TO OPPOSE HARVARD PUCK TEAM TIGHTLY

PRÁCTICE DURING RECENT HOLIDAYS BUILDS UP POWER

Harvard Has Record of 2 Wins — Loses to U. To. — By 4 Goals

BEAVERS HAVE RESERVES

Continuing a season in which they have been a sleepy bunch of hockey players, Harvard showed it has the energy of the year. The team will build up reserves for the Boston game, which was a losing effort for the first time. The team has shown much improvement, but much work remains to be done with another win.

The Crimson team has its usual reserves for the Boston game, with Woods, Mainwright, and Can proved. Their reserves will be adequate. In spite of the fact that they have less energy than the other team, the reserves will be the best in a number of years. The team has made much progress with the win to date over Boston University and the University Club, and one definite at the hands of Tufts U. The loss of Obispo, captain of last year's team, in the greatest addition to the team. The Crimson had a chance to complete a good run with another win.
