BIG ATTENDANCE ASKED

Dean Lobdell Asks Aid of the Officers of Freshmen in Regen Note

Dr. Arthur D. Little, well-known chemist and alumnus, will address the class of 1933 on "The Problem of the Engineer" before the class of 1925 in Room 1103. President Stratton announced that Dr. Little will speak in the auditorium at 4:30 p.m. on Monday, October 28, 1935, and that the lecture is open to all members of the University and to the public.

In a letter to Dr. W. W. Rogers, president of the freshmen class, Dean Lobdell stated that the lecture is to be held in the auditorium on Monday afternoon, October 28, at 4:30 p.m. He added that the lecture is open to all members of the University and to the public.

"The lecture is open to all members of the University and to the public," Dean Lobdell said. "It is hoped that a large audience will attend the lecture."
