UNSYMPATHETIC GREEKS

WHILE general student attitude is enthusiastic in carrying through the Interfraternity dances requirement, the idea of co-operation from the fraternities is a little more inconsistent. The past experience has been that the fraternities have not been particularly enthusiastic in their participation, and this has naturally caused a certain amount of dissatisfaction on the part of the students. It is hoped that this year will be different, and that the fraternities will make a real effort to live up to their end of the bargain.

The only other explanation is that the fraternity representatives feel that they do not get the credit from the Interfraternity Committee that they deserve. If they see on standing about, they imply that they think that the Interfraternity dances require the more lenient treatment because the fraternities have already been stiffed on this point.

One of the effects of the Interfraternity dances will be a better understanding between the fraternities and the rest of the student body. It is hoped that this understanding will continue even after the Interfraternity dances are over.

RISING STEAM

ALTHOUGH the Police Office is receiving a constantly increasing number of patient applications from omnivorous investors all over the country, ninety percent of them will never see commercial, widespread use. There is a decided difference between an inventor and a dreamer, notwithstanding both are fired by the same fuel. There is always room for inventions, but there is never room for contraptions.

If we can get some people interested in developing the potentialities of a suburban hotel. Such a suggestion reflects on the possibilities of the Main Hall as a ball room for their parties. Their meeting place is the basement of the old Main Hall. If this action is successful, the action will be of some benefit to the students of the college.

The only other explanation is that the fraternity representatives feel that they do not get the credit from the Interfraternity Committee that they deserve. If they see on standing about, they imply that they think that the Interfraternity dances require the more lenient treatment because the fraternities have already been stiffed on this point.

One of the effects of the Interfraternity dances will be a better understanding between the fraternities and the rest of the student body. It is hoped that this understanding will continue even after the Interfraternity dances are over.

RISING STEAM

ALTHOUGH the Police Office is receiving a constantly increasing number of patient applications from omnivorous investors all over the country, ninety percent of them will never see commercial, widespread use. There is a decided difference between an inventor and a dreamer, notwithstanding both are fired by the same fuel. There is always room for inventions, but there is never room for contraptions.

If we can get some people interested in developing the potentialities of a suburban hotel. Such a suggestion reflects on the possibilities of the Main Hall as a ball room for their parties. Their meeting place is the basement of the old Main Hall. If this action is successful, the action will be of some benefit to the students of the college.

The only other explanation is that the fraternity representatives feel that they do not get the credit from the Interfraternity Committee that they deserve. If they see on standing about, they imply that they think that the Interfraternity dances require the more lenient treatment because the fraternities have already been stiffed on this point.

One of the effects of the Interfraternity dances will be a better understanding between the fraternities and the rest of the student body. It is hoped that this understanding will continue even after the Interfraternity dances are over.

RISING STEAM

ALTHOUGH the Police Office is receiving a constantly increasing number of patient applications from omnivorous investors all over the country, ninety percent of them will never see commercial, widespread use. There is a decided difference between an inventor and a dreamer, notwithstanding both are fired by the same fuel. There is always room for inventions, but there is never room for contraptions.

If we can get some people interested in developing the potentialities of a suburban hotel. Such a suggestion reflects on the possibilities of the Main Hall as a ball room for their parties. Their meeting place is the basement of the old Main Hall. If this action is successful, the action will be of some benefit to the students of the college.

The only other explanation is that the fraternity representatives feel that they do not get the credit from the Interfraternity Committee that they deserve. If they see on standing about, they imply that they think that the Interfraternity dances require the more lenient treatment because the fraternities have already been stiffed on this point.

One of the effects of the Interfraternity dances will be a better understanding between the fraternities and the rest of the student body. It is hoped that this understanding will continue even after the Interfraternity dances are over.

RISING STEAM

ALTHOUGH the Police Office is receiving a constantly increasing number of patient applications from omnivorous investors all over the country, ninety percent of them will never see commercial, widespread use. There is a decided difference between an inventor and a dreamer, notwithstanding both are fired by the same fuel. There is always room for inventions, but there is never room for contraptions.

If we can get some people interested in developing the potentialities of a suburban hotel. Such a suggestion reflects on the possibilities of the Main Hall as a ball room for their parties. Their meeting place is the basement of the old Main Hall. If this action is successful, the action will be of some benefit to the students of the college.

The only other explanation is that the fraternity representatives feel that they do not get the credit from the Interfraternity Committee that they deserve. If they see on standing about, they imply that they think that the Interfraternity dances require the more lenient treatment because the fraternities have already been stiffed on this point.

One of the effects of the Interfraternity dances will be a better understanding between the fraternities and the rest of the student body. It is hoped that this understanding will continue even after the Interfraternity dances are over.

RISING STEAM

ALTHOUGH the Police Office is receiving a constantly increasing number of patient applications from omnivorous investors all over the country, ninety percent of them will never see commercial, widespread use. There is a decided difference between an inventor and a dreamer, notwithstanding both are fired by the same fuel. There is always room for inventions, but there is never room for contraptions.

If we can get some people interested in developing the potentialities of a suburban hotel. Such a suggestion reflects on the possibilities of the Main Hall as a ball room for their parties. Their meeting place is the basement of the old Main Hall. If this action is successful, the action will be of some benefit to the students of the college.

The only other explanation is that the fraternity representatives feel that they do not get the credit from the Interfraternity Committee that they deserve. If they see on standing about, they imply that they think that the Interfraternity dances require the more lenient treatment because the fraternities have already been stiffed on this point.

One of the effects of the Interfraternity dances will be a better understanding between the fraternities and the rest of the student body. It is hoped that this understanding will continue even after the Interfraternity dances are over.

RISING STEAM

ALTHOUGH the Police Office is receiving a constantly increasing number of patient applications from omnivorous investors all over the country, ninety percent of them will never see commercial, widespread use. There is a decided difference between an inventor and a dreamer, notwithstanding both are fired by the same fuel. There is always room for inventions, but there is never room for contraptions.

If we can get some people interested in developing the potentialities of a suburban hotel. Such a suggestion reflects on the possibilities of the Main Hall as a ball room for their parties. Their meeting place is the basement of the old Main Hall. If this action is successful, the action will be of some benefit to the students of the college.

The only other explanation is that the fraternity representatives feel that they do not get the credit from the Interfraternity Committee that they deserve. If they see on standing about, they imply that they think that the Interfraternity dances require the more lenient treatment because the fraternities have already been stiffed on this point.

One of the effects of the Interfraternity dances will be a better understanding between the fraternities and the rest of the student body. It is hoped that this understanding will continue even after the Interfraternity dances are over.