Engage Two Prom Orchestras

Vol. XI of T.E.N. Officially Closed At Annual Banquet

---

Select Chase as General Manager for Coming Year

Dietz, Berghell, and Anderson Receive Positions on Senior Board

Many Attend Banquet

Volume XII of the Tech Engineering News was inaugurated at the annual banquet held on Friday night at the Engineers Club. Some six hundred persons attended, as well as members of the faculty and the S.A.T. At 8:00 o'clock the program began with the recitation of a Student Chaplain, who said a prayer. The president of the Student Council, Mr. Allen C. O. Coffin, introduced the speaker, Mr. W. W. Gage, and the bell was rung for the start of the program. The president of the Student Council, Mr. Allen C. O. Coffin, introduced the speaker, Mr. W. W. Gage, and the bell was rung for the start of the program.

---

Capacity Audience Hears Dr. Mead Speak on Boulder Canyon Project

Lecturer Outlines Advantages To Be Derived From This Vital Project

Before an audience that filled Room 10:54 to overflowing, Dr. Nello Mead, Commissioner of Reclamation, outlined the possibilities for the development of the Columbia River Project. Dr. Mead- outlined his point with a very complete and accurate illustration of the possibilities for the development of the Columbia River Project.

---

Institute Prints Directory Of All Chinese Students

Nearly Four Hundred Graduates in the College of Engineering VI Most Popular

---

Quadangle Club Annual Initiations

Professor Pearson Addresses Club After Dinner

---

Use of Two Bands Originally Made by Class of 1905

Committee Will Dwell on Names of Other Orchestras in Next Issue

---

Plan Continuous Music

With the statement of Jack Crawford and Dr. W. H. Pearson that the University will use the Philharmonic Band, the University Band, and the Student Band for continuous music at all events, it is hoped that the University will continue to make music at all events.

---

Transfer Student Gives Impressions of Technology After One Term of It

Discusses Spirit of Institute Work, Girls, Liquor, and Even Weather

---

A record of the continuous news service for forty years.