Great Bear May Come To Institute In Distant Future

In the year 2044 A.D. "Technology" will celebrate the hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. In commemoration of this event, plans are being made for a "Great Bear" to be brought to the campus.

The "Great Bear" will be a large, magnificent creature, which will live in a specially constructed enclosure on the campus. It will be fed a diet of the finest foods, and will be given every possible comfort and care.

The "Great Bear" will be a symbol of the strength and power of the MIT community, and will be a source of inspiration to all who see it. It will be a reminder of the achievements of the Institute, and will be a beacon of hope for the future.

The "Great Bear" will be a major attraction for visitors to the MIT campus, and will be a landmark for the city of Cambridge. It will be a symbol of the vitality and dynamism of the MIT community, and will be a source of pride for all who are associated with the Institute.

The "Great Bear" will be a fitting tribute to the proud history of MIT, and will be a source of inspiration for future generations. It will be a reminder of the achievements of the past, and a symbol of the challenges of the future.

The "Great Bear" will be a living, breathing symbol of the strength and power of the MIT community. It will be a symbol of the vitality and dynamism of the Institute, and will be a source of inspiration for all who see it.

The "Great Bear" will be a fitting tribute to the proud history of MIT, and will be a source of inspiration for future generations. It will be a reminder of the achievements of the past, and a symbol of the challenges of the future.