HARRISON OUTSTANDING

In a rough and tumble basketball game, the Technology five was the victor over the Pratt five yesterday, 17 to 10, in front of a large and enthusiastic crowd at the Hangar Gym.

At the start of the game it looked as though 17 points would be a comfortable margin, but the Pratt five was able to turn the score to 10 to 7 at the half.

The Pratt team was led by Mr. George A. Perley, a former member of the Institute basketball team, who scored eight points on two field goals and two free throws. The Technology team was led by Mr. J. C. Peters, Jr., who scored 12 points on four field goals and two free throws.

Technology Competes With Two Teams in Walker

With a record of two victories and two defeats, the Technology team meets Temple and Bowdinger in two meets next month in Walker Gym.

The program will feature the usual field-goal game, in which each team attempts to make a goal by shooting a ball through a hoop, and the Tech team will have to score at least one goal to win.

Mr. George A. Perley, former captain of the Tech team, will return to the fold as the team's leading scorer.

BEACON HILL HOUSE HOSTS CONCERTS

Concerts are to be held at the Beacon Hill House in the evenings of the coming week.

The concerts will feature music by the Technology Concert Band and the Tech Chorus. The concerts will be open to the public and the admission will be free.

FAIR ENDS

The New Hampshire Agricultural Society Fair ended yesterday with a grand finale of music and dancing.

The fair was attended by thousands of people who enjoyed the various attractions, including horse shows, cattle shows, and a variety of food stands.

The fair was sponsored by the New Hampshire Agricultural Society, which is dedicated to promoting agricultural education and development in the state.
