THE TECH

Blashfield's Three Murals in Walker

Research Type of Painting

Few students know symbolize representation of the paintings by the quite an achievement for the artists and the students. The new murals will add a great deal of beauty to the walls of the building and are a real testament to the artistic talents of Blashfield's students. The new murals are expected to be completed by the end of the month.

Profounda

Another year passes, another Junior Class takes the reins of Technology's social chariot, and another Junior Prom Committee is chosen for the annual event. The Prom Committee, consisting of members of the class of 1934, has been formed and is already hard at work planning the Junior Prom.

The Lounger

The Lounger is a confidential method of transportation. Last year, the Lounger was introduced to the campus and has since become an integral part of the social scene. The Lounger is a small, low-budget, and high-impact vehicle that is able to transport students from one end of the campus to the other with ease.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Available Courses at the School of Architecture

The School of Architecture at MIT offers a wide range of courses and programs, including design, history, and theory. The school is committed to providing a comprehensive education that prepares students for careers in architecture and related fields.

Student Government

The student government is an important part of campus life. It is composed of elected representatives who work to ensure that the needs and concerns of students are addressed.

Chemistry Department

The Chemistry Department at MIT is one of the largest and most respected in the country. It offers a wide range of courses and research opportunities, and is home to many world-renowned experts in the field.

Technology Places Many In Whose... Census Reveals Nineteen-Year...

The census reveals that many students at MIT are involved in extracurricular activities. Over 60% of students participate in some form of extracurricular activity, with the most popular being clubs and organizations. The majority of students participate in sports, with football being the most popular.

Selections

Our Spring display of Lanrock Fine Clothes... look forward to the day when you can don your finest... and step forth to be congratulated on your selections.