Europeans Students Contrast Strongly
With Those in American Institutions

Scholars in Spain Take Active Interest in Affairs
Of State

The following article, which appeared in The New York Times on Sunday, offers an interesting commentary on the American and Spanish students' activities.

"The news from Spain brings back to me the idea that I have already mentioned in my weekly postscript, the difference that I notice between university students in America and in Europe. Last week, thousands of Spanish students fought the police with stones and clubs and burned down the offices of a center and public squares. One student was killed and over one hundred were wounded.

"Many of these students were
Gorki Joins Fraz

"Certain days thousands of students, with a Bennett of gift students in the bureaucracy, began to march towards the action of resorting.

"The National Student's Federation declared a general strike at Madrid,
"The news from Spain brings back to me the idea that I have already
mentioned in my weekly postscript, the difference that I notice between university students in America and in Europe. Last week, thousands of Spanish students fought the police with stones and clubs and burned
down the offices of a center and public squares. One student was killed and over one hundred were wounded.

"Many of these students were
Gorki Joins Fraz

"Certain days thousands of students, with a Bennett of gift students in the
bureaucracy, began to march towards the action of resorting.

"The National Student's Federation declared a general strike at Madrid,
"The news from Spain brings back to me the idea that I have already
mentioned in my weekly postscript, the difference that I notice between university students in America and in Europe. Last week, thousands of Spanish students fought the police with stones and clubs and burned
down the offices of a center and public squares. One student was killed and over one hundred were wounded.

"Many of these students were
Gorki Joins Fraz

"Certain days thousands of students, with a Bennett of gift students in the
bureaucracy, began to march towards the action of resorting.

"The National Student's Federation declared a general strike at Madrid,