FRESHMEN SWAMP NORTHEASTERN U.
IN CLOSING MEET

Win Ten First Places To Score 91-35—Rebecca, Wright
Memorial "A" Take Two Other Championships

ANNOUNCE Men IN E. N. T.

Northeastern—In one year at the Beaver freshmen track team last year, when they were defeated by the Institute, men. 9 to 31. At the end of the freshman season, when they were won by the Engineers, one of the new freshmen became a familiar face to many of the students.

The team, coached and led by the late David L. Young, has been in existence for several years, and was known to be a strong one on the track.

The team will be back in action next year, and it is expected that they will make another strong showing.

The meeting was held on the track of the Institute, and the event consisted of a relay race, a hurdles race, and a quarter mile run. The team won the relay race by a comfortable margin, and the hurdles race was won by a close margin. The quarter mile race was won by the team from the Institute, who ran a time of 54.2 seconds.

The meeting was well attended, and the crowd showed great interest in the events. The weather was fine, and the track was in good condition.

First and Second in Every Event

The team was on a roll, and won all its meets by a large margin. The team was headed by the late David L. Young, who was the head coach of the team.

The team was in fine form, and it is expected that it will make a strong showing in the coming season.

The team will be back in action next year, and it is expected that they will make another strong showing.

The meeting was held on the track of the Institute, and the event consisted of a relay race, a hurdles race, and a quarter mile run. The team won the relay race by a comfortable margin, and the hurdles race was won by a close margin. The quarter mile race was won by the team from the Institute, who ran a time of 54.2 seconds.

The meeting was well attended, and the crowd showed great interest in the events. The weather was fine, and the track was in good condition.

First and Second in Every Event

The team was on a roll, and won all its meets by a large margin. The team was headed by the late David L. Young, who was the head coach of the team.

The team was in fine form, and it is expected that it will make a strong showing in the coming season.