By Ralph H. Davis '31

Today the Class of '31 finishes its four years of class career. This is particularly regret that the members of the Class of '31 will be separated at this other final festivity. This re-groups together with hopeful at-expectation for the future. We have behind us a period of four years of which we have been able to add additional dimensions to the undergraduate life that we shall never forget.

Let us turn back the pages for a few years and see what changes have taken place in their Class. There have been some very rapid and many faces have appeared, transformed, or altered. On the other hand, the Class of '31 will have many new faces have appeared. The changes that have been interned during the intervening period. We recall our first knowledge concerning Techology, whom we have learned to admire and respect.
